Elizabeth Goldenberg

I offer my unique knowledge as a mother, a lawyer, a food allergy safety expert, and the leader of a worldwide food allergy community to companies worldwide. Food manufacturing companies are struggling to understand how to attract and retain the food allergic market. By speaking at your conference, I will help you understand:

- ▶ the size of the food allergic market
- ▶ what allergen policies and procedures help you sell product
- ▶ what legal requirements are there regarding allergens in products
- ▶ what are our unmet needs
- ▶ what allergens are top priority
- ▶ how to reach us through social media
- ▶ the content we need to see in your press releases, allergen statements, and websites
- ▶ how to address past mistakes to regain market share

Please contact me to determine how I can best serve your company.
